2019 NSW INTERCLUB OBEDIENCE CHALLENGE

Metropolitan Mid-Week Dog Training Club.

Well done to the Metro Interclub team. We had a lot of new dogs & handlers this year and there was some really good work from everyone. Metro came 16th out of 21 teams. There were some bloopers but also moments of brilliance.

Congratulations to Hills Dog Club who came 1st and 3rd and have the honour of holding next year's competition. Congratulations to Northern Suburbs DTC who came 2nd. Well done to these three terrific teams.

Our Secretary Kerrie recieved the below Channel 7 Casting call

Subject: TV Opportunity for Dogs

We are looking for long haired dogs of all shapes and sizes who might have what it takes to be styled and groomed on a brand new TV for Channel 7. We're looking to challenge some of Australia's best dog groomers by transforming dogs into something spectacular. Obviously, dogs selected would need to be very comfortable being groomed and happy to get all the attention!

Dogs selected would need to be available for 1 – 2 days of filming in Sydney's inner west on nominated days around late October and through November to be confirmed at a later date.

The first step in the Casting process would be for any of your members who are interested to complete our official application form using the link below:

“Untitled”

He frayed my lovely carpet
That I'd saved my pennies for,
And when he wasn't chewing
He was weeing on the floor.
Nor did he spare the table leg
That came in for a gnaw,
Though I told him off the message
Never seemed to reach his jaw.

We laboured at the gardening,
Me and my little pup.
At two I planted flowers
And at four he dug them up.
He liked to dig, he'd bury bones
And pat it down so neat,
And then he'd rush indoors
As clods of mud flew off his feet.

I bought a book on training
And I read it all one night,
And when we set off out
I really thought we'd got it right,
With titbits in my coat
To give him once he got the knack,
But he didn't so I couldn't
So I ate them coming back.

When I commanded “Heel!”
He never seemed to take the point
But galloped on half-strangled,
Tugging my arm out of joint.
He jumped up people's clothes,
The cleaning bills I had to pay!
And when I shouted “Here!”
He turned and ran the other way.

One day I drove him over
And I gave him to my Dad
Who welcomed him and trained him,
But it left me very sad
So I thought I'd let you know
In case a pup's in store for you
That it's very wise indeed
To have a Dad who likes dogs too.

What is That Delicious Smell Mutt Meatballs

This DIY dog food recipe is a time- and money-saver. The mutt meatballs are tasty, healthy, and easy to be fed to your dog. They can serve as a treat to take along when you're going out together. You can store the extra meatballs in a container in the refrigerator. As they contain fat, make sure you don't give them to a dog that suffers from gastrointestinal diseases.

total time: 40 minutes

ingredients:

- 453 grams of lean ground beef
- 2/3 cup grated cheddar cheese
- 1 large carrot, chopped
- 3/4 cup breadcrumbs
- 1 egg, whisked
- 6 tablespoons tomato paste (low-sodium)

how to prepare:

1. Preheat your oven to 175 degrees Celsius.
2. Put all the ingredients in a bowl.
3. Scoop out by the spoonful, and roll into mini meatballs.
4. Place the meatballs on a cookie sheet.
5. Bake for 15 to 20 minutes.
6. Let it cool before serving.
